

Dear Rabbi Hidary,

The girls and their teachers raved about their visit and your mentorship. The synagogue, undeniably, is exquisite and a landmark in America but you were able to transfer its beauty and historical significance in ways that also made a great impact. Landmarks, museums and the like for teenagers aren't always sites that are at the top of their "must see" list, but because of your presentation and welcoming style this "tour" was tops. Thank you very much for investing the time and for giving the energy needed to meet with the students.

Shabbat Shalom,
