Divine Dialogue: Paths to Approaching God in Prayer A Two-Part High Holidays Preparation Series

Rabbi Richard Hidary | Mondays, September 19 and September 26 | 7:00 pm

Prayer calls upon us to approach God with our deepest concerns and hopes both in daily tefillah and especially on the High Holidays. Standing before the Infinite can be difficult and daunting. Luckily, we have many models from Abraham and Rambam to contemporary thinkers who can help guide us through the different pathways towards having a dialogue with the Divine. This series will explore some of these approaches and apply them to the Rosh Hashanah and Yom Kippur liturgies.

Apple Picking

Sunday, September 25 | 12:00 pm departure from CSI - Return by 5:00pm

The price includes the round-trip bus from the synagogue and the admission fee. Participants pay for apple picking bags and fun add-ons (hay rides etc.) at the farm. Bring your own brown bag lunch. You should have received an email this week announcing our new cloud-based synagogue management program, ShulCloud. Please help us by following the instructions in the email sent to you. We'd appreciate if you log in, review and update your account information now, so that when we send out the High Holiday seating information requests in the first week of September, your account will be set. This new system is private and secure. Please bear with us during this transition, in case there are any technological glitches. If you have any questions or require assistance in getting your account set up, contact Diana Landau at dlandau@shearithisrael.org.
