We would like to take this opportunity to offer them our heartfelt thanks. We are very grateful to everyone who has already supported these efforts:

ONGOING PROGRAMMING (cont.)

Virtual Hashcaba Service and Misheberakh for the Ill

Friday | 6:15 pm | Rev. Z. Edinger
On Zoom - refer to our emails for the link

Our Shamash, Rev. Zachariah Edinger, will recite Hashcabot (memorial prayers) for those who had a nabala this past week. We will also offer prayers for those who are ill. These prayers will be recited in the Main Sanctuary and will last about 5-10 minutes. If you would like to add the name of someone who is ill, or would like more information, please email Z Edinger.

Virtual Habdala Service

Saturday night | Z. Edinger
On Zoom - refer to our emails for the link

You are invited to join in while Z. Edinger recites Habdala according to the S&P nusakh for his family. Habdala should be recited individually in one's own home, but please join us if you wish to feel a part of this communal activity. Also, these prayers will be recited slowly for any who wish to recite it together and learn our nusakh.

The Guide to the Duties of the Heart

Sundays | 8:45 am | Rabbi Sjimon den Hollander

Via Zoom - To receive the link, email Rabbi den Hollander at sjimon@flatironre.com

While The Guide to the Duties of the Heart (completed around 1075 CE) is sometimes called the first work of Jewish ethics, it aims to guide us towards a spiritual dedication, taught within a philosophical outlook that has similarities with both Saadiah Gaon and Maimonides.
