August 17, 1829 was the consecration of the congregation’s third extant burial ground, the West 21st Street Cemetery, which was used until 1851.
Today, several families from our synagogue visited Kibbutz Yad Mordechai. A central battle site in the Israeli War of Independence, the kibbutz is named for Mordechai Anielewicz, the leader of the Warsaw Ghetto revolt, and contains a museum with an extraordinary model of the Ghetto. At the same time, Yad Mordechai is now the largest producer of honey in the State of Israel. Our visit thus included what might seem several unrelated and incongruous experiences: visiting trenches defended by Israelies in 1948, studying the story of the Ghetto revolt, and learning about the science and art of raising bees and of producing various delicious forms of honey. Yet as our bus pulled away, I realized that these moments at the kibbutz actually complemented each other in an extraordinary way.

One of the few biblical stories involving bee honey takes place in the book of Judges, or Shoftim. The book describes how Samson, known for his superhuman strength, once succeeded in killing a lion with his bare hands. Later, we are told, Samson came upon the carcass of this lion, and saw that bees had built a honey hive within the carcass. Death teeming with life. He scooped up the honey, and as he ate, he pondered the phenomenon he had found, and coined a riddle to describe what he had seen: \textit{mei-az yatza matok}—from the fierce came forth the sweet. When we consider Samson’s words, we realize that they capture the story of our people. Lion after lion, savage civilization after savage civilization, attempted to devour us, but even as each ended up on the ash heap of history, our ancestors resisted, rebuilt, and like bees, made hives in the forms of Jewish homes, and savored what was truly sweet: faith, family, and posterity.

Tasting honey at this kibbutz, then, perfectly captured our experience over this holiday. Many decades after the Warsaw Ghetto Revolt and the Israeli War of Independence, Jews in Israel must still battle fiercely for their safety and security. Yet to experience Israel is to be struck so often not by the fierce, but rather by the sweet, and perhaps most of all at this time of year, when one witnesses Jews of every background, from this country and around the world, filling the synagogues, parks and streets throughout the land, celebrating Pesah, the festival of our freedom, in an overwhelming experience of faith, family, nationhood and love. \textit{Mei-az yatza matok}, indeed.

\textit{These words were written during Shearith Israel’s trip to Israel over Pesah 5776.}
We recently hosted Rabbi Ephraim Mirvis, Chief Rabbi of the United Hebrew Congregations of the Commonwealth, at an elegant and sold-out Shabbat luncheon. The Chief Rabbi engaged in a dialog with Rabbi Soloveichik on the question: Is there a Future for Jews in Europe?

Sadly, we have become accustomed to hearing of anti-Semitic incidents, some of them on horrific scales, in France, Belgium, Denmark, and elsewhere in Europe. With major incidents of Islamist terrorism, a growing and increasingly aggressive BDS (boycott, divestment and sanctions) movement against Israel and her supporters, and heightened feelings of insecurity, some of us are asking about the future for Jews in America. I am not suggesting that sizeable numbers of Jews are leaving the US (to the contrary, we have seen a sizeable uptick, for example, of French Jews immigrating to our shores) or that there is a sense of imminent peril. However, our community is most certainly grappling with implementing the right kinds of security measures that will keep us safe without converting our synagogues into unwelcoming fortresses. While the stakes are high, the solutions are not simple. Here in NY, each community determines what their risks and vulnerabilities are. Then, with the aid of security professionals and borrowing some of the tried and true approaches from our more experienced counterparts in Europe and Israel, each community comes up with a plan that may involve structural and procedural enhancements, personnel modifications, and roles for volunteers.

In light of the security environment we are all adjusting to, we thought now would be an opportune time to tell you about some of the security enhancements we have implemented at Shearith Israel, much of which is invisible or barely discernible to you but should make an important difference:

1) New and improved security personnel
The summer before last we made the decision to switch security firms. We retained a firm that is highly regarded and has contracts with the Israeli consulate as well as other prominent area synagogues and day schools. We have been very pleased with the markedly improved professionalism of this firm.

2) Emergency preparedness training
Thanks to a substantial grant awarded to us by the U. S. Department of Homeland Security, last summer our entire full time staff, including our clergy, administrative staff, facilities crew, and toddler program team underwent an intensive training program customized for and delivered to us by Gleis Security Consulting, LLC. During this training we learned how to identify and mitigate risks, and were taught protocols for a range of critical incidents. Gleis Security also created a customized emergency manual for us and helped us identify safe rooms, lock down procedures and evacuation routes in the case, God forbid, of a disaster or critical incident.

3) Facility improvements
The bulk of the Homeland Security grant has enabled us to replace our CCTV security cameras and surveillance and security devices with state-of-the-art equipment. Our new emergency alert system activates blue strobe lights throughout strategic sites in the building and alerts police and security of a potential crisis. The surveillance equipment allows our staff to monitor our facility and the surrounding vicinity from multiple internal stations as well as remotely by smartphone.

We pray and hope that all of these measures serve as insurance and are not needed for an actual event. We also pray and hope for the safety and serenity of our fellow Jews and all peace loving people everywhere.

"...we learned how to identify and mitigate risks, and were taught protocols for a range of critical incidents."

THREE WEEKS SERIES: ALLEGORY, PHILOSOPHY, AND MYSTERY IN THE BOOK OF JOB
Rabbi Richard Hidary

Job as Read by the Midrash
Monday, August 1 | 7:00 pm

Job as Read by Maimonides
Monday, August 8 | 7:00 pm

Job as Read by Modern Existentialists
Tisha B’Ab, Sunday, August 14 | 6:00 pm

The Book of Job offers the most sublime poetic statement about the deepest struggles with justice, suffering and human existence. This series analyzes this biblical book as interpreted over the course of centuries from the Talmudic sages, to the medieval philosophic tradition to modern writers in order bring forth the eternal relevance of this composition to our own contemporary challenges.
TISHA B’AB LECTURE
Ereb Tisha B’Ab, Saturday, August 13
Following the evening service
Rabbi Meir Soloveichik
Following the reading of Eikhah, Rabbi Soloveichik will speak on the topic “In the Shadow of the Arch: When Rome’s Chief Rabbi Converted.” Read more about our deeply moving Tisha B’Ab Services on page 14.

TISHA B’AB FILM SCREENING
Sunday, August 14 | 4:30 pm
Rabbi Richard Hidary
Join us Tisha B’ab day for a screening of Oro Macht Frei featured in last year’s New York Sephardic Film Festival. Oro Macht Frei tells the story of the 9 month Nazi occupation of Rome (Sept 8, 1943 - June 4, 1944) through testimony, scholarship and archival footage. The film also examines the period of Mussolini’s Racial Laws (1938-1945) as well as the Catholic Church’s response to the round-up of the Roman Jews.

SHABBAT LECTURES
The Misunderstood Masterpiece: A New Approach To Pirkei Abot
One hour before minhah
Rabbi Meir Soloveichik
Pirkei Abot is often understood as a mere series of unrelated ethical adages. In fact, each brief and much-cited maxim in Pirkei Abot actually hints at the extraordinary, and unique, life story and worldview of its rabbinic source. What’s more, the chapters of Abot are joined in a structure that tells the story of the transmission of the Oral Law. We will see how studying the history of the rabbinic figures cited lends an entirely new understanding to these statements, and how Abot represents the diverse response of the rabbis to an age of crisis and transition that was, in many ways, not unlike our own.

HIGH HOLIDAYS 5777
High Holidays are an exciting time at Shearith Israel. We celebrate with our friends and family in our magnificent sanctuary to the sounds of our mellifluous choir. Behind the scenes High Holiday preparations occur all year round! Please be on the lookout for emails and snail mail with instructions about how to opt-in and out of your seat, request additional seats as well as information about security, child care, and offerings information. We look forward to spending a beautiful season with you.

A REFLECTION ON HERRINGFEST!
By Rob de Vos, NY Consul General of the Netherlands
I was very happy to join the HerringFest! on March 8th together with my lovely wife, Marion. It was a great event that celebrated both the shared cultural heritage as well as the friendship between the Netherlands and Congregation Shearith Israel.

And all symbolized by the herring!
Herring played an essential role in the history of the Netherlands. The flourishing herring fishing industry allowed the Netherlands to become one of the most powerful countries in the world in the 17th century, which led to the successful Dutch East Indian Company, with ships sailing from Mokum (Amsterdam’s nickname) to everywhere in the world and later the West Indian Company that connected Old Amsterdam to New Amsterdam.

And, of course, in Jewish culture the herring also plays an important role. From the beginning, Jews were prominent in the Dutch herring trade, importing and transporting the fish from the Netherlands to Germany, Poland and Russia transforming it to a delicacy that occupies an honored position on the Jewish table.

During the incredibly festive event, I enjoyed the many variations of herring, the atmosphere and the speeches by Rabbi Soloveichik. It was fantastic how he stressed the strong ties between the Netherlands and the Congregation and I particularly enjoyed the way he used the social behavior of the herring shoal as a metaphor and example for the Congregation. I found this to be an original and powerful metaphor!
GIRLS’ MEGILLAT RUTH READING
Shabu’ot, Monday, June 13 | 11:30 am
Following morning services, the girls of our synagogue will recite Megillat Ruth for the congregation in the Main Sanctuary. If your daughter would like to participate, and we would be delighted if she would, please contact Mrs. Lisa Rohde at lirohde-csi@yahoo.com.

YOETZET HALAKHA
We are proud to be a co-sponsor of the Manhattan Yoetzet Halakha Initiative. If you have any questions regarding Taharot Hamishpaha (Family Purity), laws of Niddah, please contact our new Yoetzet Halakha, Ilana Gadish in confidence at nycyoetzet@gmail.com.

Ilana Gadish serves as the Yoetzet Halakha for a number of synagogues in Manhattan, and is a graduate of Nishmat’s U.S. Yoatzot Halakha Fellows program. Ilana also teaches Talmud and Tanakh at the Ramaz Upper School. Ilana received her M.A. in Biblical and Talmudic Interpretation at the Graduate Program in Advanced Talmudic Studies (GPATS) at Stern College for Women, where she also received her B.A. with a major in Judaic Studies and a minor in Biology. She spent a year studying at Midreshet Lindenbaum in Jerusalem, as well as two summers at the Drisha Institute. Ilana currently lives on the Upper West Side with her husband Moshe Peters.

ONE-ON-ONE TOUR OF THE UWS MIKVAH
If you are interested in learning more about Taharot Hamishpaha, the Laws of Family Purity, please contact Layaliza Soloveichik at layaliza@gmail.com for a private tour of the facilities at the local UWS Mikvah. To maximize confidentiality, these one-on-one tours will take place at times when the Mikvah is closed to the public. Tours of other local mikvanot are also possible. Women only.

YOUNG COUPLES & FAMILIES INDOOR PICNIC
Saturday, July 9
Following Shabbat Services
Who wants to fret over rain clouds or bother with insect repellent? After all, the best thing about picnicking is relaxing with friends and enjoyable casual picnic fare. Organized by our fabulous committee of young couples, this year’s end-of-year picnic will be held at the synagogue, where we can enjoy our protected, park-facing Portico as well as the Elias Room. Fun activities for the kids and a rabbi’s lecture for the adults will keep everyone happy. Watch your emails for registration details and sponsorship opportunities.

HONORING OUR GRADUATES
Saturday, June 11
Following Morning Services
Help us showcase the success and accomplishments of all our graduates. We want to list the PhDs, the rabbinic ordinations, the B.A.s, as well as the pre-school, middle school and high school graduates. Let us know if you, your child, or other synagogue member is graduating this year so we can list them in our scroll of honor.

In addition, we are seeking $36 co-sponsors for our graduation Kiddush. Your $36 contribution will earn you a customized mazal tov for your special graduate in the scroll of honor. For more information, visit shearithisrael.org/graduation.

YOUTH PROGRAMMING

TODDLER SUMMER CAMP

June 21rd – August 18th | Tuesdays and Thursdays, 9:30 – 11:30am

For children aged 16 – 33 months. Adult caregiver presence is required.

The Shearith Israel Toddler Program has been serving the community since the summer of 1999. Our space allows children to move around freely in the company of other children they spend time with on a regular basis. We have small wading pools outside on our “beach” when the weather is hot. There is time for play, craft projects, exercises, saying Berakhot (blessings), snack, stories, music and more. There is an opportunity for the caregivers to support the children’s activities and there are times when the teacher encourages them to sit on the side and observe while the children manage on their own.

We offer a one-day option but we strongly recommend two days which gives more continuity to the program; it allows the child to be more aware of educational themes that continue for several sessions and also to see familiar faces on a regular basis. Limited to 18 toddlers per session, now is the time to enroll. For questions and to enroll, go to shearithisrael.org/toddler-summer-camp.

YEAR-ROUND WEEKDAY TODDLER PROGRAM

September 7, 2016 – June 9, 2017 | Mondays & Wednesdays, 9:30 – 11:30am

For ages 16 – 34 months. Adult caregiver presence is required.

Loved our Summer Toddler program? Join us year-round at what parents are calling “the best kept secret on the Upper West Side!” For questions and to enroll, contact Barbara Reiss.

THE SHEARITH ISRAEL HEBREW SCHOOL: POLONIES TALMUD TORAH SCHOOL (PTTS)

For students aged 3-16 years old

All classes meet on Sundays from 10:00 am – 12:00 pm

Elementary school-aged children also meet on Thursdays from 4:00 pm – 6:00 pm

Register for Fall 2016. Classes begin September 18.

Our Hebrew School, the Polonies Talmud Torah School, has been educating our children for over 200 years, making it the oldest and most venerable institution of Jewish learning for youth in America. It provides children and teens, ages 3–16, with a comprehensive and substantive Jewish education in a positive and engaging environment. Our well educated, trained and enthusiastic staff create a dynamic and warm learning environment in which children are motivated to learn and grow. Students develop Hebrew language skills (reading, writing and comprehension), learn about all of the Jewish holidays and their rituals, the major portions of the Bible, Jewish history, and how Jewish ideas inform our values in modern times. We employ quality workbooks, including those specially created for our school, as well as informal religious experiences such as Purim and Succah celebrations, matza baking, group prayer in our colonial-era little synagogue, field trips, and more. For more information and to enroll, visit shearithisrael.org/hebrewschool. For questions, contact Yona Glass.

CULINARY CORNER

Spinach b’Jiben

By Esther Hidary

Growing up in the Syrian Jewish community of Brooklyn, I was always surrounded by delicious food. My maternal and paternal grandmothers were next door neighbors and in both their houses I was sure to find freshly fried kibbeh, delicious lehmajin, sembusak, kaak and every other food I could wish for or imagine. Below is a staple dish cooked in every Sephardic home on “dairy” nights. This one is made with spinach but Jibens, like most quiches, can be made with artichokes, squash, mushrooms, or potatoes.

Ingredients

- 3 egg whites
- 3 whole eggs
- 1 container cottage cheese (I use 1% whipped but anything is fine)
- 2 cups grated mozzarella cheese
- 2 boxes of chopped spinach (defrosted and drained)
- 1 large onion finely chopped
- Salt and pepper

Directions

In a shallow pan, sauté onion in a little olive oil. When translucent add spinach and sauté until all water evaporates. Season spinach with a bit of salt and pepper and leave to cool. In a separate bowl whip together eggs whites and whole eggs. Add cottage cheese and mozzarella. Add spinach. Mix all ingredients together and pour into a baking dish. Cook at 350 for an hour to an hour and fifteen minutes or until browned on top. Enjoy!

If you would like to submit a recipe for a future bulletin, send it to Tikva Ostrega at tikvaostrega@gmail.com. In addition to the recipe, please include a short back-story describing the origins of the dish and why it is special to you.
SERVICES

TISHA B’AB AT SHEARITH ISRAEL
August 13-14, 2016
Tisha B’Ab, the most solemn day of the Jewish calendar, commemorates the destruction of both the First and Second Temples in ancient Jerusalem. Over the years, this day has also come to remind us of other historic tragedies that have befallen the Jewish people. For Tisha B’Ab, the Reader’s Desk and Holy Ark are draped in black. The evening and morning services are conducted from a special table—also draped in black—rather than from the Reader’s Desk. The synagogue lights are dimmed, so that congregants follow services with small flashlights. The melodies of Tisha B’Ab are somber and deeply moving. The afternoon service on the day of Tisha B’Ab takes on an optimistic air. We focus on Isaiah’s words of consolation to the Jewish people: Nahamu nahamu Ami, be comforted, be comforted My people. The Almighty has promised that Israel will be consoled and redeemed. The service closes with a crescendo of biblical verses, sung by the Hazzan and Congregation that speak of the restoration of Jerusalem and the redemption of the people of Israel. The fast day which had begun so somberly is now transformed by thoughts of consolation and redemption. Rabbi Meir Soloveichik will deliver a public lecture following the reading of Eikhah on the eve of Tisha B’Ab.

The Three Weeks between the Fast of the 17th of Tammuz and the Fast of the 9th of Ab are a traditional period of contrition and mourning for Jerusalem and the Temple; prophetic passages of reproof and foreboding are designated as the haftarah readings on the three intervening Sabbaths. Sephardic custom is to refer to these Sabbaths by the opening words of the particular haftarah read on that day. Shabbat Dibre is the first; its reading is the opening of the Book of Jeremiah. All three haftarot are chanted in a dirge of lament, although each ends on notes of comfort.

Shabbat Hazon refers to the opening “vision” of the Book of Isaiah, parallel to the opening prophetic vision of the book of Jeremiah which was read during the preceding two weeks. This last of the group of these three haftarot, the one which immediately precedes the Fast of Ab, is often read by the hazzan or some other scholar who is “well-versed in lamentation,” as it is at Congregation Shearith Israel. This year the 9th day of the Month of Ab falls on Shabbat, and the Fast is put off until the following day, so that this year Shabbat Hazon is the Eve of the Fast of Ab. Saturday afternoon Minniah is held early at 3:30 pm, so that all may go home to eat their Third Meal at suppertime and begin their fast by sunset (7:50), concluding the Sabbath at 8:35 by reciting “baruk hamahabdil ben kodesh leol,” and returning to the synagogue for the Motza’ Shabbat/Fast of Ab Arbor Service, which is called for 9:00 pm. The service begins with the hazzan reciting the single blessing “bore me’ore ha’es” from the habadalah, over a candle. On Sunday evening, the fast should be concluded with the remainder of habadalah recited over a cup of grape juice or wine, without spices or a candle.

Shabbat Nahuamu: The Fast of the 9th of Ab is followed by the seven Sabbaths preceding Rosh HaShanah at which special Haftarot of Consolation from the end of the Book of Isaiah are chanted. The first of these, immediately following Tisha BeAb, is called Shabbat Nahuamu, referring to Isaiah Chapter 40’s famous opening words “Comfort ye, comfort ye, my people.”

Shabuot, The Feast of Weeks or Pentecost comes on the fiftieth day, just after the 7-week Omer period between the beginnings of the barley and wheat harvests, and traditionally commemorates the Revelation at Sinai seven weeks after the Israelites left Egypt.

The Book of Ruth is traditionally read on Shabuot, since it deals with both the Israeli grain harvest at this time of year, which this festival marks, as well as the acceptance of the Torah, in this case by Ruth as a faithful convert. The younger girls of the congregation who take part are pre-assigned a few verses each, which they carefully rehearse, learning to chant them according to the congregation’s unique traditional cantillation system for the Book of Ruth. Girls wishing to take part, or their parents, should please contact Mrs. Lisa Rohde (lisrohde-caia@yahoo.com) well in advance of the festival. The girls will read their portions at the end of Sunday Morning Services at 11:30 am.

Azharot (Admonitions) is the name given to the poem by Shelomo Ibn Gabirol with introduction by David Ibn Eleazar Pekudah. It enumerates all 613 Commandments of the Torah in rhymed verse. The introduction and the first part, which lists the 248 positive Commandments, is read on Sunday evening at 7:30, before Minnah. The second part, which enumerates the 365 negative Commandments, is read on Monday evening at 7:30, before Minnah. The poem is chanted by the men and boys of the congregation to the Spanish & Portuguese traditional Shabuot melody in round-robin style, with each participant leading two lines at a time.

The generosity of our members and friends enables us to continue to honor our past, strengthen our community and pass on our traditions for the next chapter of Jewish and American history. We have many opportunities to contribute in fulfilling our mission as a synagogue.

GENERAL DONATIONS
General donations honor our past with dignity through the preservation of our historic spaces including our main sanctuary and small synagogue, three historic cemeteries in Lower Manhattan and our active cemetery in Cyprus Hills, Queens. These donations ensure a strong future through engaging educational programs with rigorous ritual and liturgical training for youth including PTTS, our Toddler Programs, Junior Congregation, and special opportunities for girls. And perhaps most importantly, general donations uphold and celebrate our minhag and liturgical traditions through dedicated clergy members, our sublime choir, Shabbat, and holiday services.

KIDDUSH FUND
The congregational Kiddush is an opportunity for congregants and visitors to socialize and mingle after services, humbly serving an important congregational function. Sponsoring a kiddush is a beautiful way to pay tribute to a loved one, celebrate a birthday, anniversary, graduation, a personal accomplishment, or a ritual honor. It is also a great way to foster community—facilitating fellow congregants to catch up with friends, meet new members and guests, and greet synagogue leaders.

RA BI’S DISCRETIONARY FUND
The Rabbi’s Discretionary Fund is a charitable arm of our congregation. These funds are designated by our rabbis for members in need and communities in crisis. This past year, our funds have assisted a number of members as well as communities in Nepal recovering from the earthquake, and the Houston Jewish Community recovering from flooding.

CLASS AND EVENT SPONSORSHIPS
Help us strengthen educational initiatives at Shearith Israel by supporting a warm and inviting atmosphere to learn, debate, and grow together as a community. Sponsor food and refreshments for a class or semester of Bet Midrash, Tuesday morning women’s class, Tuesday evening Talmud Shiur, Hebrew courses, Learners’ Service, or Shabbat afternoon class. Or, contribute to sponsor an event, such as academic symposiums, lectures, and discussions with Jewish scholars from around the world and maintain our synagogue as a leader in contemporary Jewish dialogue.

CARING CONNECTION
Financial contributions support efforts in proactively providing organized assistance to members of our community through times of need, one of Judaism’s greatest Mitzvot. Caring Connection raises the funds needed to defray the costs of all it does. Not only does this vital assistance greatly aid the individual, it also strengthens and unifies our community and enhances our sense of responsibility for one another.

SPONSOR SCOTCH AND ARAK
In addition to our weekly Kiddush sponsors and contributors we are now also accepting sponsors for the scotch and arak that we make available each week. To sponsor or contribute go to shearithisrael.org/scotch-and-arak-sponsorships.

BEQUESTS
Please consider including Shearith Israel in your estate planning. For more information, please speak with our Executive Director, Barbara Reiss.

VOLUNTEER YOUR TIME AND TALENT
Shearith Israel belongs to its devoted members and our vitality depends on our participation and involvement. Our most successful programs and activities are those that are organized with the help of capable volunteers who bring creativity, good cheer and friends. We have a variety of committees and societies, such as our Sisterhood and Young Leadership for you to contribute ideas and energy. We also benefit from the talents and expertise of lay leaders who can help us in important projects such as historic cemetery restoration, archival upgrades, real estate projects and facilities needs, and so much more. And of course, at our core, we are a caring community and that means that providing emotional and logistical support to members in times of need cannot depend on our clergy alone but requires the care and involvement of many whether through our Caring Connection hesed committee or our Hebra. Getting involved is how you make it happen and how you forge meaningful connections at your synagogue.
