The lighting of Hanukkah candles is one of the most powerful images in Judaism, and with Hanukkah approaching, it is appropriate to ponder this ritual’s symbolism and significance. In his magnificent memoir, Fear No Evil, Natan Sharansky describes his persistence as a “Prisoner of Zion” in a Russian gulag. During the Hanukkah season, he was denied the right to kindle candles in his cell, and went on a hunger strike in response.

Hauled before the Soviet soldier that oversaw the prison, Major Osin, Sharansky explained that he would cease his hunger strike if he were permitted to light his holiday candles in the Major’s office. The memoir describes what unfolded next.

I arranged the candles and went to the coat rack for my hat, explaining to Osin that during the prayer he too must stand with his head covered and at the end say ‘Amen.’ He put on his major’s hat and stood. I lit the candles and recited my own prayer in Hebrew which went something like this: “Blessed are You, God, for allowing me to rejoice on this day holiday of our return to the way of our fathers. Blessed are You, God, for allowing me to light the candles. May You allow me to light candles many times in your city, Jerusalem, with my wife Avital, and my family and friends.”

I added, “And may the day come when all our enemies, who today are planning our destruction, will stand before us and hear our prayers and say ‘Amen’.”

Ner Hashem nishmat adam, we are reminded in Proverbs; the soul of man is the candle of God. It is so easy to take life’s most fundamental gifts for granted. Sharansky’s sacrifice for a few candles is a potent reminder that in the darkest of times, in the coldest of places, the light of Judaism endured because we never forgot what was truly precious: to observe the Torah with our loved ones, family friends, to “return to the ways of our fathers,” to reflect the light of Jerusalem, and of the Torah, in our own lives. As we light the neirot this year, may its luminance remind us of what is most important—and what truly gives light to our lives.

FROM THE RABBI’S DESK

LUMINANCE IN THE GULAG—AND IN OUR OWN LIVES

Rabbi Dr. Meir Y. Soloveichik
EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR’S MESSAGE

HONORING OUR PAST, EMBRACING PROGRESS

Barbara Reiss

Just weeks ago our congregation enjoyed an elegant and uplifting gala honoring three Shearith Israel “institutions”: past parnas, Peter Neustadter, nearly lifelong member and retired congregational professional, Arnie Goldfarb, and choirmaster of 60 years, Leon Hyman. Fitting such an occasion, there was much talk about each honoree’s role, and our community’s dedication to preserving our unique and precious traditions. However, there were just as many words devoted, especially in Peter’s and current parnas, Louis Solomon’s remarks, and as manifest in the debut of Leon’s new choral compositions, to the importance of progress and maintaining relevance.

Along those lines, I’m sure you’ve all noticed, that in the name of progress, we have eliminated most all paper mailings, including program and event notices, your invoices, high holiday tickets, and more. Just about the only thing that will continue to be sent via snail mail are these attractive seasonal bulletins which we hope you enjoy perusing, especially over Shabbat. While electronic communications are not perfect (what is?), they are generally fast, cost-effective, more environmentally friendly, easy to share, and easy to act upon.

And then there is the brave, no longer so new world of social media. If you are not on Facebook or you have not yet “liked” us on our Facebook page, then you have missed out on many interesting and fun posts such as Jon Mendes’ marathon achievement, Rabbi Soloveichik’s standing room only pre-election history lecture, or our online gala photo album featuring photos of many of you and your friends. This 21st century medium is also the very best way for you to learn fascinating historical tidbits about our congregation through our occasional “on this day in history” posts, to access dibrei torah by our clergy, or to connect with members and friends of the S&P communities around the world. To date, we have more than 2,200 Facebook followers from around the world.

So while appreciating the irony of this Facebook pitch on our one remaining significant commitment to the paper world, we do urge you to get on Facebook if you have not already, “like” us, and join the conversation.

JEWRY DUTY

“Jewry Duty” is an important effort to bolster minyan attendance and help prevent occasions of missing minyan. Your attendance is especially helpful to the mourners, encouraging to other minyan attendees, and of course, spiritually valuable for each and every one of us. Even if you are unable to attend services regularly, we hope that a small commitment is within everyone’s reach.

Congregants living in Manhattan are given an assigned date to attend services; this is your “Jewry Duty.” We send you a reminder in advance of your assigned date and we also post the weekly schedule on the Thursday email immediately preceding. If you are unable to attend on your “Summons” date, please don’t get upset; we hope you will consider attending whenever it is convenient for you. If you’d like to commit to a different date, we’d appreciate you letting us know by contacting our shamash, Zachary Edinger. Your participation is valuable and we are most thankful for all of you who have participated and encourage all of you to participate whenever you are able.
I know that I speak for each president of Shearith Israel from the last fifty years when I say that none of us could have imagined being Parnas without Ronald Stanton. When we heard that Ronald had died, Peter Neustadter and I exchanged our own private condolences. As Peter put it in his note to me, “no synagogue has ever had a better friend.” For me, as for so many of us, it was a personal loss. My family’s friendship with Ronald’s goes back to Ronald and his mother Hedi’s first days in the United States. But here I would like to elaborate on what Peter meant about Ronald being the synagogue’s best friend. Nothing concentrated the mind like entering Ronald’s office for a meeting of the Ministerial Committee, which Ronald chaired. Ronald demanded clarity, and his patience was tested if you danced around the facts or avoided the obvious. By the time the meeting was over, you had a goal, a plan to achieve it, and Ronald’s support.

From the founding of our Congregation, we have never had a more generous, consistent, or determined supporter. Remarkably, Ronald’s support was unqualified. Once satisfied with the integrity and soundness of the Board or the Committee’s deliberations, Ronald never attached strings. He understood that for the Congregation to thrive, resources were needed as well for day-to-day functioning as for our more exciting long-term challenges. There was one exception to the “no-strings” policy: Ronald always conditioned a portion of his support on shared fundraising support from the community. He understood that we all needed to accept responsibility for the Congregation’s health, including its financial well-being.

Ronald never forgot his experience as a refugee, when he came to this country from Nazi Germany, nor the love with which our synagogue embraced him and his mother. While Ronald’s major gifts and projects around the City are known to all of us, less well known is how, quietly and steadily over the years, he gave support to family after family in our community when they needed it. At Ronald’s insistence, they never knew his identity, for he never wanted to be thanked. He preferred the private satisfaction of returning the kindness shown to him years before.

I will miss Ronald, and our Congregation will miss him. How fortunate we were to have a friend like Ronald.

Cemetery Tour Highlights Historic Ties of Three Congregations

Joshua de Sola Mendes

Congregation Shearith Israel has long been a model of comity between Sephardim and Ashkenazim and between orthodoxy and other denominations—and that was nowhere better on display than in a recent pre-High Holiday tour of the synagogue's Beth Olam cemetery in Queens, led by our Shamash Zachariah Edinger.

Symbolizing that harmony, the tour was organized in conjunction with Shearith Israel’s cemetery partners, Congregation B’nai Jeshurun and Temple Shaaray Tefilla. The event began with a special “Geniza” Tefilla. The event began with a special “Geniza” service to bury ritual objects from the respective synagogues. This was led by Rolando Matalon, Rabbi of Bnai Jeshurun and by our hazzan, Rabbi Ira Rohde.

Attendees from all three congregations then listened attentively as Zachariah Edinger, together with Robert Kanter of BJ, led a tour of the grounds, describing the lives and achievements of some of its notable residents. Among them: Israel Bear Kursheedt, born in Germany and a student of Natan Adler, he was “assuredly the most learned Jew in America in the early decades of the country,” said Shamash Edinger. He also symbolized the ties between communities, marrying the daughter of Gershom Levy, the first Jewish commodore of the U.S. Navy.

We also visited Three Civil War era ministers, with opposing views during the Civil War: Rev. Samuel Isaacs of Shaaray Tefilla (anti-slavery); Rabbi Morris Raphall of Bnai Jeshurun (pro-slavery); And, Rev. Jacques Judah Lyons, minister of Shearith Israel (pro-Union but conspicuously silent on the topic of slavery).

The morning ended with memorial prayers in the “metaher house,” the small chapel designed by Calvert Vaux, co-architect of Central Park.

Part Two of the series took place May 22 with the annual visit to our Chatham Square Cemetery, Shearith Israel’s first burial ground, in what today is Chinatown. The ceremony, honoring members of our congregation who participated in the Revolutionary War, was punctuated by a special color guard. In attendance were military veterans, clergy and members of the community who placed American flags at the graves of our 22 veteran congregants. The cemetery was active from 1682 until 1823.

For more information on all our cemeteries, please see shearithisrael.org/cemeteries.

Purim Shushan
Monday, March 13th
Morning (Shahrit) Service...................................... 7:15 am
The Fast of Esther commemorates the day when the Jews of Persia donned sackcloth and ashes, went without food, and prayed that they be spared the massacre planned for them by Haman. Men don tefillin at the 5:30 service. Usually observed on the day before Purim, this year it is advanced to the previous Thursday because the Eve of Purim falls on Shabbat.

Purim commemorates the day when, through the intervention of Mordecai and Queen Esther, the Jews of Persia escaped being victims of Haman’s evil plot to exterminate them.

Purim Shushan, the day following Purim, is the day Purim was celebrated in Shushan, the capital of ancient Persia, and in Jerusalem.

Rosh Hodesh Nisan (One-Day)
Mon. Eve, March 27th-Tuesday, March 28th
(For Services see Daily Schedule)
The generosity of our members and friends enables us to continue to honor our past, strengthen our community and pass on our traditions for the next chapter of Jewish and American history. We have many opportunities to contribute in fulfilling our mission as a synagogue.

GENERAL DONATIONS
General donations honor our past with dignity through the preservation of our historic spaces including our main sanctuary and small synagogue, three historic cemeteries in Lower Manhattan and our active cemetery in Cyprus Hills, Queens. These donations ensure a strong future through engaging educational programs with rigorous ritual and liturgical training for youth including PTTS, our Toddler Programs, Junior Congregation, and special opportunities for girls. And perhaps most importantly, general donations uphold and celebrate our minhag and liturgical traditions through dedicated clergy members, our sublime choir, Shabbat, and holiday services.

KIDDUSH FUND
The congregational Kiddush is an opportunity for congregants and visitors to socialize and mingle after services, humbly serving an important congregational function. Sponsoring a kiddush is a beautiful way to pay tribute to a loved one, celebrate a birthday, anniversary, graduation, a personal accomplishment, or a ritual honor. It is also a great way to foster community—facilitating fellow congregants to catch up with friends, meet new members and guests, and greet synagogue leaders.

SPONSOR SCOTCH AND ARAK
In addition to our weekly Kiddush sponsors and contributors, we are now also accepting sponsors for the Scotch and Arak that we make available each week. To sponsor or contribute go to shearithisrael.org/scotch-and-arak-sponsorships.

RABBI’S DISCRETIONARY FUND
The Rabbi’s Discretionary Fund is a charitable arm of our congregation. These funds are designated by our rabbi for members in need and communities in crisis. This past year, our funds have assisted a number of members who have hit hard times as well as important causes such as the Houston Jewish Community recovering from flooding, the Food Bank for NYC and worthy institutions in Israel.

CLASS AND EVENT SPONSORSHIPS
Help us strengthen educational initiatives at Shearith Israel by supporting a warm and inviting atmosphere to learn, debate, and grow together as a community. Sponsor for a class, Monday Night Learning, minyan breakfast, Tuesday morning women’s class, Tuesday evening Talmud shiur or Shabbat afternoon class. Or, contribute to sponsor an event, such as academic symposiums, lectures, and discussions with Jewish scholars from around the world and maintain our synagogue as a leader in contemporary Jewish dialogue.

CARING CONNECTION
Financial contributions support efforts in proactively providing organized assistance to members of our community through times of need. One of Judaism’s greatest Mitzvot, Caring Connection raises the funds needed to defray the costs of all it does, including delivering meals to mourners and new parents. Not only does this vital assistance greatly aid the individual or family, it also strengthens and unifies our community and enhances our sense of responsibility for one another.

BEQUESTS
Please consider including Shearith Israel in your estate planning. For more information, please speak with our Executive Director, Barbara Reiss.

VOLUNTEER YOUR TIME AND TALENT
Shearith Israel belongs to its devoted members and our vitality depends on our participation and involvement. Our most successful programs and activities are those that are organized with the help of capable volunteers who bring creativity, good cheer and friends. We have a variety of committees and societies, such as our Sisterhood and Young Leadership for you to contribute ideas and energy. We also benefit from the talents and expertise of lay leaders who can help us in important projects such as historic cemetery restoration, archival upgrades, real estate projects and facilities needs, and so much more. And of course, at our core, we are a caring community and that means that providing emotional and logistical support to members in times of need cannot depend on our clergy alone but requires the care and involvement of many whether through our Caring Connection hesed committee or our Hebra. Getting involved is how you make it happen and how you forge meaningful connections at your synagogue.

To give and learn more, visit shearithisrael.org/giving. Thank you for enabling the continuation and strengthening of our congregation’s mission and legacy.
