May 19, 2017 will mark the 120th consecration anniversary of the congregation’s fifth and current synagogue at 2 W. 70th Street, built in the neoclassical style, with a stunning sanctuary designed by Louis Comfort Tiffany, world-renown stained-glass and decorative artist.
One of many extraordinary nuggets of information to be found in Gil Marks’ Encyclopedia of Jewish Food concerns Dov Behr Manischewitz, the founder of the matza company. In the late nineteenth century, Manischewitz began producing matzot in his basement. Demand, Marks tells us, “grew both from the Jewish community and from an unexpected market. At the time, Cincinnati was a prominent starting point for pioneers heading West, who needed durable and nonperishable items to take in their wagons for the lengthy, dangerous trip. Matzo’s keeping ability proved ideal for pioneers.” In other words, Manischewitz matza took off because pioneers bought it to eat on the American frontier.

This is not only fascinating; it is profoundly appropriate, because matza, according to the Torah, is the original frontier food. We tend to refer to the seven or eight day holiday beginning on the fifteenth of Nissan by the name “Pesah,” but that is not actually its name. “Pesah,” in the Torah, refers to the 14th of Nissan, when the paschal lamb is offered, commemorating God’s protection of our people during the plague of the firstborn. The holiday that follows on the fifteenth is known as Hag Hamatzot, the “Festival of Unleavened Bread,” marking the week in which our ancestors fled into the desert, with no time to wait to allow their bread to rise.

Why do we ignore God’s name for this holiday in our popular parlance? It was the mystical master known as Arizal that suggested that these two names embody a reciprocal relationship of love between God and the Jewish people. Jews tend to refer to the entire holiday as Pesah, commemorating and celebrating God’s protection of us. God, in contrast, refers to our major holiday as the “Festival of Matzot,” focusing not on what He did for us, but rather on what we were willing to do for Him. God stresses this theme in Jeremiah as well: “I remember the devotion of your youth, your bridal love, that you followed Me into the wilderness, into an unsown land.”

Today, pioneers no longer embark on the American frontier, but the role of matza in its history ought to inspire us to embark on new frontiers in our spiritual lives, to grow as servants of the Divine. As we prepare for Passover, let us make it not only the holiday of Pesah, but also the Festival of Matzot, as we ponder all that God has done for us, and what we therefore ought to do for Him.

FILM SCREENING: CARVALHO’S JOURNEY AND Q&A WITH FILMMAKER, STEVE RIVO

Following the screening, we will hold a Q&A session with the film’s producer, writer, and director, Steve Rivo

Wednesday, May 17 | 7:00 pm

Screened in the 2016 NY Jewish Film Festival to critical acclaim, Carvalho’s Journey tells the amazing story of Solomon Nunes Carvalho (1815-1897), an observant Sephardic Jew of Portuguese descent. Born in Charleston, SC, Carvalho later moved to Philadelphia, as well as New York City (and is buried in our cemetery). The film chronicles his life as a groundbreaking adventurer, portrait painter, and photographer.

When famed explorer John Frémont set out through the Rocky Mountains to find a transcontinental railroad route, he recruited Carvalho to document the trek using daguerreotyping, a then-recent photographic innovation that captured images on a silver-coated plate. Carvalho, who never fancied himself an explorer, understood that despite his inexperience and the sacrifices such a journey would entail, the expedition would name him among the first photographers (certainly the first Jewish photographer) to document the sweeping vistas and breathtaking terrain of the American West.

Surviving grueling conditions and recurrent food shortages, Carvalho recorded the treacherous details of his 2,400-mile journey in his daily journal entries, excerpts of which he later included in his bestselling 1857 memoir, Incidents of Travel and Adventure in the Far West. Carvalho was a product of a singular period in American and Jewish history, when the young country was full of creativity, industry, and independent spirit, and its small community of Jews was figuring out how to fit into the larger culture while still maintaining its unique religious identity.
A VERY SPECIAL SHABBATON IN WASHINGTON, DC AND MONTICELLO
Learn History. Celebrate History. MAKE History.
Lead by Rabbi Soloveichik | Friday May 5 – Sunday, May 7

This once-in-a-lifetime opportunity features the first Kaddish in almost two centuries at Monticello’s Jewish grave, followed by a memorial service for the Jewish family that saved Jefferson’s home and preserved his legacy.

The nineteenth-century naval war hero Commodore Uriah Phillips Levy was a member of Shearith Israel and a grandson of some of America’s most celebrated Jewish patriots. In the 1830s he purchased Monticello, the home of Thomas Jefferson, and saved it from disrepair. It was in Monticello that he buried his mother, Rachel Phillips Levy, the daughter of Jonas Phillips, one of the most fascinating men in American Jewish history. Uriah’s family ultimately bequeathed Monticello to the American people. Over the decades that followed, multitudes visited Monticello to learn about Jefferson’s legacy, but few, including visiting Jews, knew of the Jewish gravesite on the grounds, and of the story it told.

Join us for an unmissable weekend with Rabbi Soloveichik in which we will tour Monticello and visit Rachel Levy’s grave. There we will recite kaddish for the first time in almost two hundred years, followed by a memorial service for the Phillips family and for all the Jewish patriots in our country’s history.

Spaces are highly limited. We have also secured a block of rooms at a discounted tax-exempt rate at Washington’s 5-star Park Hyatt Hotel. Our trip begins with a Friday afternoon tour, led by Rabbi Soloveichik, of DC’s National Gallery and National Portrait Gallery, followed by a Shabbaton in Washington DC at Congregation Kesher Israel, featuring lectures by Rabbi Soloveichik. Our visit on Sunday to Monticello includes a professional tour of Jefferson’s home, access to the grounds and gardens, and culminates in this special service.

For full itinerary, terms, and to register go to shearithisrael.org/Monticello.
FILM SCREENING: TREZOROS, THE LOST JEWS OF KASTORIA
Wednesday, June 7 | 7:15 pm
Join us on Holocaust Remembrance Day as we view the film, Trezoros. Trezoros (Ladino/Judeo Spanish term of endearment meaning “Treasures”) chronicles one of many former Sephardic communities which had existed in Greece before World War II. Kastoria, an idyllic lakeside setting near the Albanian border, saw Jews and Christians living in harmony for over two millennium. October of 1940 saw Axis forces break through Greek defenses, eventually dooming the Jewish community that had existed since the times of the Roman Empire.

THE MISUNDERSTOOD MASTERPIECE: A NEW APPROACH TO PIRKEI ABOT
Shabbat Afternoon | One Hour Before Minhah | Rabbi Meir Soloveichik
Pirkei Abot is often understood as a mere series of unrelated ethical adages. In fact, each brief and frequently cited maxim in Pirkei Abot actually hints at the extraordinary and unique life story and worldview of its rabbinic source. What’s more, the chapters of Abot are joined in a structure that tells the story of the transmission of the Oral Law. We will see how studying the history of the rabbinic figures cited lends an entirely new understanding to these statements, and how Abot represents the diverse response of the rabbis to an age of crisis and transition that was, in many ways, not unlike our own. Accompanied by seudah shelishit. Sponsorship opportunities are available. To find out more, go to shearithisrael.org/sponsoraclass.

IRMA MIRIAM LOPES CARDOZO Z”L

Carla Schein

For more than half a century, Irma Miriam Lopes Cardozo was the unofficial Spanish and Portuguese “Rebbitzin” at Shearith Israel. It was a role she loved and one she assumed naturally. Her home was open to all, from well-known rabbis, authors, musicians and philanthropists, and to those just in need of her warmth, welcoming smile, and sometimes a hot meal. She was as comfortable with her contemporaries as she was with small children, and those feelings were reciprocated.

Although Irma loved life and celebrations, she also knew that life had more difficult times, and Irma was often the first person called when someone had an illness or death in the family.

Irma was very efficient, and if you wanted to be sure that something got done, she was your go-to person. Irma was fiercely determined, and when she took on a project, whether maintaining or replacing the Torah mantles, making sure the Sukkah was beautifully decorated and the silver polished properly, or raising money for the many causes she was involved with beyond the synagogue, she was relentless – until she achieved her goals.

Born in Suriname, Irma Miriam Robles came to Washington, DC in 1945 and afterwards to New York. In her book, “As I Lived It” Irma wrote, “I had many hurdles to overcome. I came to this country without money, had no higher education and had no family to help me. I was Orthodox but had no yeshivah education.”

Once in New York, she re-met Abraham Lopes Cardozo, the young Amsterdam-born hazzan who had been in Suriname when she had been a teenager. Both were now here, and their friendship grew.

They were engaged in December 1950, and married in March 1951. That was the beginning of a 55 year love affair and partnership where each supported and helped the other in their service to Shearith Israel. As Irma wrote in her book, “I grew up in a home filled with people, where synagogue life was central.” Both Irma and her “Bram” were adamant about upholding both halakhah and the special Spanish and Portuguese minhag of Shearith Israel. At the same time they both were very contemporary, up on the news, whether American, Israeli or world-wide.

I apologize if this seems too personal. My first memory of Irma dates back to my pre-school days when I saw her picture at the home of my Hebrew teacher, her future husband, Mr. Cardozo. I was a flower girl at their wedding and our families remained close for all those years. Irma and Bram Cardozo felt like part of my family, but I was always impressed that so many Shearith Israel families felt exactly the same way! I was honored to serve as co-President of the Sisterhood with Irma and was amazed that even as her health and strength began to fail, her concern for the Sisterhood and for its projects in support of the Congregation never faltered.

Shearith Israel, her children, grandchildren and great-grandchildren, as well as all of us who knew her, have lost a most special and memorable person. How fortunate we were to have had her in our lives.

Carla Salomon Schein has been a member of the Congregation since before she was born; her parents were married at Shearith Israel. She is currently the president of the Sisterhood, a position she shared with Irma Cardozo for many years.

This Surinamese recipe from Irma Lopes Cardozo z”l is a delicious mixture of coconut, dried fruits, and sweet wine.

Ingredients:
- 10 ounces sweetened grated coconut
- 7 ounces ground almonds
- 8 ounces mixed dried fruits, coarsely cut
- 8 ounces raisins
- 7 ounces dried apricots, coarsely cut
- 8 ounces dried pears, coarsely cut
- 2 to 3 teaspoon cinnamon
- 3 cups water, approximately
- 12 ounces cherry preserves
- 1 cup Malaga wine (or other sweet red wine)

Instructions
Combine coconut, almonds and 1 1/2 cups of water. Stir well and cook over medium heat until mixture begins to thicken.

Stir in all the dried fruits and cinnamon. Continue cooking over medium-low heat, adding additional water as mixture thickens.

After about 45 minutes stir in the cherry preserves. Cook approximately 15 minutes longer, until the coconut has softened and mixture is extremely thick.

Cool about 15 minutes and stir in the wine. The mixture should be moist and thick.

Refrigerate until serving. After the haroseth has been refrigerated it often needs additional wine to remoisten it. Serve at room temperature.

Yield: About 8 cups.

Surinam Haroset
by Irma Lopes Cardozo, z”l as it appeared in The New York Times

On the morning of the Passover Hagadda (Seder), the Cardozo home at 18 West 70th Street was already sparkling and ready for the guests who would arrive after services. The sweet smell of Mrs. Cardozo’s famous Surinamese haroset wafted through the air as it cooked in a huge pot on the stove. While setting the long festive tables in the dining room, and preparing food in the oven, Mrs. Cardozo would return to check the big pot, bubbling with the sweet concoction, giving it a good stir with a long wooden spoon. After midday, an assortment of people—neighbors and congregatees—would ring the doorbell, glass jars in hand, waiting for a sampling of this delightful dish.

CARING CONNECTION

Caring Connection, our Congregation’s hezed network, was founded in order to provide organized assistance to members of our community. We respond to a variety of situations, for example, in times of difficulty, illness or mourning, or for exciting and often overwhelming challenges accompanying the arrival of a new baby. Caring Connection facilitates and trains community members as sensitive volunteers to proactively help others through times of need, one of Judaism’s greatest mitzvot. Not only does this vital assistance greatly aid the individual, it also strengthens and unifies our community and enhances our sense of responsibility for one another. If you know someone who might need assistance, in any form, or if you would like to volunteer, please contact caringconnection@shearithisrael.org.

MAOT HITTIM

In the opening paragraph of the Haggadah, we read: “All who are hungry, let them come and eat.” As part of experiencing freedom ourselves, we must also ensure that our fellow Jews have the means to celebrate freedom too. Maot Hittim is a special Passover fund, originally intended to provide the poor with matzah. Your online gift or check made out to the “Rabbi’s Discretionary Fund” (indicate ‘maot hittim’ in the memo) will be distributed by Rabbi Soloveichik right before Pesah. Go to shearithisrael.org/maothittim to donate.
TISHA B’AB AT SHEARITH ISRAEL

July 31 - August 1, 2017

Tisha B’Ab, the most solemn day of the Jewish calendar, commemorates the destruction of both the First and Second Temples in ancient Jerusalem. Over the years, this day has also come to remind us of other historic tragedies that have befallen the Jewish people. For Tisha B’Ab, the Reader’s Desk and Holy Ark are draped in black. The evening and morning services are conducted from a special table—also draped in black—rather than from the Reader’s Desk. The synagogue lights are dimmed, so that congregants follow services with small flashlights. The melodies of Tisha B’Ab are somber and deeply moving. The afternoon service on the day of Tisha B’Ab takes on an optimistic air. We focus on Isaiah’s words of consolation to the Jewish people: Nahamu nahamu ani, be comforted, be comforted My people. The Almighty has promised that Israel will be consolated and redeemed. The service closes with a crescendo of biblical verses, sung by the Hazzan and Congregation that speak of the restoration of Jerusalem and the redemption of the people of Israel. The fast day which had begun so somberly is now transformed by thoughts of consolation and redemption. Rabbi Meir Soloveichik will deliver a public lecture following the reading of Ezekiel on the eve of Tisha B’Ab.

The Three Weeks

between the Fast of the 17th of Tammuz and the Fast of the 9th of Ab are a traditional period of mourning and fasting for Jerusalem and the Temple; prophetic passages of repentance and mourning are observed as haftarah readings on the third intervening Sabbath. Sephardic custom is to refer to these Sabbaths by the opening words of the particular haftarah read on that day. Shabbat Dibire is the first; its reading is the opening of the Book of Jeremiah. All three haftarot are chanted in a dirge of lament, although each ends on notes of comfort.

July 21st-22nd

Shabbat Shimi

continues the theme of repentance and ominous foreboding with a reading from the second chapter of Jeremiah.

Shabbat Hazon refers to the opening “vision” of the Book of Isaiah, parallel to the opening prophetic vision of the Book of Jeremiah which was read during the preceding two weeks. This last of the group of these haftarot, the one which immediately precedes the Fast of Ah, is often read by the hazzan or a scholar who is “well-versed in lamentation,” as it is at Congregation Shearith Israel.

Pesah, Passover, or Hag HaMatzo, The Feast of Unleavened Bread, is observed in the middle of the month of Nisan, around the spring equinox, commemorating the Exodus from Egypt. Hametz, leavened food, is searched for and removed prior to the holiday, and a Search for Hametz is made on the eve and morning of the 14th of Nisan. The 14th of Nisan, the day of the Biblical Paschal Sacrifice, is observed as a partial holiday and as the Fast of the Firstborn by some (attending a festive stiyum that morning obviates the need to fast), and by late morning all Jewish-owned hametz should be sold and hidden, or eliminated and nullified. The Paschal sacrifice was consumed on the Eve of the First Day of the Feast of Unleavened Bread. The eve of the 15th of Nisan, which became our two-day Diaspora observance, with a Haggadah or Seder Recitation and Meal at home on the Eve of the 15th and the Eve of the 16th. The Biblical Hag HaMatzo lasts from the 15th until the 21st, with full Festival restrictions from work in effect on the First and Seventh Days. In the Diaspora the fully restricted days came to be the First Two as well as the Seventh and an additional Eighth Day, Nisan 22nd. The Intermediate Days have fewer restrictions, except for the Intermediate Shabbat.

Omer Counting
The ‘Omer, the First Sheaf-bundle of Grain (Barley) Harvest Offering, was brought on the Biblical Second Day, beginning the “’Omer” seven-week count to the First Wheat-Bread Offering on Day 50, which is Shabbat, the Feast of Weeks or “Pentecost.”

Shir HaShirim, The Song of Songs, is traditionally read during Passover. The teen girls of the congregation who take part are pre-assigned a portion, which they learn to chant according to the congregation’s unique cantillation system. The girls will chant after the Intermediate Shabbat Morning Service, Saturday, April 15th, at 11:30 am.

Shabu`ot, The Feast of Weeks or Pentecost comes on the fiftieth day, just after the 7-week 'Omer period between the beginnings of the barley and wheat harvests, and traditionally commemorates the Revelation at Sinai seven weeks after the Israelites left Egypt.

The Book of Ruth is traditionally read on Shabuot, since it deals with both the Israeli grain harvest at this time of year, which this festival marks, as well as acceptance of the Torah, in this case by Ruth as a faithfual convert. The younger girls of the congregation who take part are pre-assigned a few verses each, which they must learn to chant according to the congregation’s unique traditional cantillation system for the Book of Ruth. Girls wishing to take part, or their parents, should please contact Mrs. Lisa Rohde (lirohde-csi@yahoo.com).

Azharot (“Admonitions”) is the name given to the poem by Shelomo Ibn Gabirol with introduction by David Ibn Eleazar Pekudah, which enumerates all 613 Commandments of the Torah in rhymed verse. The introduction and the first part, listing the 248 positive Commandments, is read on Wednesday evening at 7:15, before Minhah. The second part, which enumerates the 365 negative Commandments, is read on Thursday evening at 7:15. Men and boys chant the poem to the Spanish & Portuguese traditional Shabu`ot melody in round-robin style, with each participant leading two lines at a time.

GET INVOLVED

We hope to see you soon! Here are a few great ways to stay connected and get more involved at Shearith Israel:

• Come to an event: Our full events calendar is available online
• Join our email list: Get weekly invites to our events and classes
• Take a class
• Make a donation
• Become a member
• Work with youth
• Help host or organize an event
• Join a committee
• Sponsor a kiddush
• Support our historic preservation projects
• Like us on Facebook: www.facebook.com/shearithisrael.nyc
The generosity of our members and friends enables us to continue to honor our past, strengthen our community and pass on our traditions for the next chapter of Jewish and American history. We have many opportunities to contribute in fulfilling our mission as a synagogue.

GENERAL DONATIONS
General donations honor our past with dignity through the preservation of our historic spaces including our main sanctuary and small synagogue, three historic cemeteries in Lower Manhattan and our active cemetery in Cyprus Hills, Queens. These donations ensure a strong future through engaging educational programs with rigorous ritual and liturgical training for youth including PTTS, our Toddler Programs, Junior Congregation, and special opportunities for girls. And perhaps most importantly, general donations uphold and celebrate our minhag and liturgical traditions through dedicated clergy members, our sublime choir, Shabbat, and holiday services.

KIDDUSH FUND
The congregational Kiddush is an opportunity for congregants and visitors to socialize and mingle after services, humbly serving an important congregational function. Sponsoring a kiddush is a beautiful way to pay tribute to a loved one, celebrate a birthday, anniversary, graduation, a personal accomplishment, or a ritual honor. It is also a great way to foster community—facilitating fellow congregants to catch up with friends, meet new members and guests, and greet synagogue leaders.

SPONSOR SCOTCH AND ARAK
In addition to our weekly Kiddush sponsors and contributors we are now also accepting sponsors for the scotch and arak that we make available each week. To sponsor or contribute go to shearithisrael.org/scotch-and-arak-sponsorships.

RABBI’S DISCRETIONARY FUND
The Rabbi’s Discretionary Fund is a charitable arm of our congregation. These funds are designated by our rabbis for members in need and communities in crisis. This past year, our funds have assisted a number of members who have hit hard times as well as important causes such as the Houston Jewish Community recovering from flooding, the Food Bank for NYC and worthy institutions in Israel.

CLASS AND EVENT SPONSORSHIPS
Help us strengthen educational initiatives at Shearith Israel by supporting a warm and inviting atmosphere to learn, debate, and grow together as a community. Sponsor for a class, Monday Night Learning, minyan breakfast, Tuesday morning women’s class, Tuesday evening Talmud shiur or Shabbat afternoon class. Or, contribute to sponsor an event, such as academic symposiums, lectures, and discussions with Jewish scholars from around the world and maintain our synagogue as a leader in contemporary Jewish dialogue.

CARING CONNECTION
Financial contributions support efforts in proactively providing organized assistance to members of our community through times of need, one of Judaism’s greatest Mitzvot. Caring Connection raises the funds needed to defray the costs of all it does, including delivering meals to mourners and new parents. Not only does this vital assistance greatly aid the individual or family, it also strengthens and unifies our community and enhances our sense of responsibility for one another.

BEQUESTS
Please consider including Shearith Israel in your estate planning. For more information, please speak with our Executive Director, Barbara Reiss.

VOLUNTEER YOUR TIME AND TALENT
Shearith Israel belongs to its devoted members and our vitality depends on our participation and involvement. Our most successful programs and activities are those that are organized with the help of capable volunteers who bring creativity, good cheer and friends. We have a variety of committees and societies, such as our Sisterhood and Young Leadership for you to contribute ideas and energy. We also benefit from the talents and expertise of lay leaders who can help us in important projects such as historic cemetery restoration, archival upgrades, real estate projects and facilities needs, and so much more. And of course, at our core, we are a caring community and that means that providing emotional and logistical support to members in times of need cannot depend on our clergy alone but requires the care and involvement of many whether through our Caring Connection hesed committee or our Hebra. Getting involved is how you make it happen and how you forge meaningful connections at your synagogue.

Thank you for enabling the continuation and strengthening of our congregation’s mission and legacy.
