As we prepare to ritually remember the Menorah of the Temple, it is useful to ponder the most famous depiction of this ancient candelabra. The Arch of Titus depicts the triumphal return of the Temple’s marauders, with soldiers hoisting aloft the vessels of God’s home in Jerusalem. Serving as an entryway into ancient Rome, proclaiming the Empire’s triumph over Judea to all visitors, the arch and its image is seared into Jewish memory.

Yet this was not the only arch, or entryway, where a remembrance of the menorah could be found. The original obligation was to place the lamp on the outside of one’s home, at the entrance, opposite the mezuzah. Even when Jews began lighting inside, many did so with the candles facing the mezuzot of the inner doorways. In this way, a home on Hanukkah was decorated with diverse mitzvot. Judaism thereby proclaimed that even stripped of sovereignty and scattered over the earth, Judaism could still survive, and ultimately endure, if every Jewish home was made into a tiny Temple. God may have been exiled from His home in Jerusalem, but He could take refuge in ours.

Over the centuries, the construction by triumphal arches continued. We know of others made in Rome; we are familiar with the Napoleon’s arch in Paris, and the Marble Arch in England. All are expressions of empire, manifestations of military might. Meanwhile, over the centuries, the Jewish creation of their own humble entrances continued as well; a mezuzah on the right and a hanukiah on the left. Consider the extraordinary contrast. On the one hand we have the proud entryways of emperors, on the other the doors of Jewish homes. And as every one of those empires ended up on the ash heap of history, it is klal Yisrael that remains. Thus did the doors of Jewish homes become the ultimate triumphal arches.

There was a tradition among the Roman Jewish community to refrain from walking under the Arch of Titus. In 1948, after the State of Israel’s establishment was announced, the Jews of Rome walked under it freely for the first time in two millennia, but this time they walked in the opposite direction than that tread by Titus’s triumphant troops, symbolizing the reversal of all the Arch proclaimed. Imagine the amazement of Titus, or of Vespasian, or Constantine, were they told that Jews had reestablished sovereignty over their land, reversed the effects of the Roman conquest, and have created a flourishing society speaking the language of their ancestors. It is indeed a miracle; and part of the reason Judaism survived was because the tiny temple that was the Jewish home was a fortress throughout the centuries, an edifice so seemingly insignificant, but ultimately so extraordinary that no empire overcame it.
A MESSAGE FROM OUR PARNAS
THE CONGREGATION’S YEAR OF YEARS CAMPAIGN: KEEPING THE MOMENTUM
Louis M. Solomon

Dear Congregants:

Over the past year, we have been updating the Congregation on our plans and aspirations for our Congregation’s Year of Years Celebration, which commemorates our Congregation’s 365 years of organized Jewish presence in America. I am pleased to note that, for the next few editions of this Bulletin, we will be devoting special space to a Year of Years Update so that the Congregation will know where we’ve been and where we are going.

Like the Jewish calendar, which boasts of four independent Rosh Hashanahs throughout each year (celebrating four distinct New Years), we too will be staggering our Year of Years with different celebration points. This past Rosh Hashanah marked a first commencement of our Year of Years celebration; the Year of Years Update describes the wonderful Hatanim luncheon that brought so much good cheer to those who attended. We will also officially be recognizing our first Year of Years commencing in January 2019 as well. It is our expectation that, by then, we will be able to share with the Congregation a very special project now being worked on by several of our historically minded congregants, who are busy investigating 365 fascinating facts about our community and congregation over the past 365 years. Third, as we approach the Spring, we will be celebrating another Year of Years commencement that the Board of Trustees is working on now and which, we hope, will allow the Congregation to celebrate the role of women at Shearith Israel over the centuries, past and future. Finally, come next Fall, as we usher in our first year of our second 365-year cycle, we hope to celebrate a gala event worthy of our history and future.

These focal points, significant as they are, will stand in supporting roles to the even more significant events throughout the year. Week in, week out you will be able to enjoy and be moved by our services, our classes, our lectures, our fun evenings and programs. If you live through a cycle of year with us, you will be treated to breathtaking beautiful tefillot (services), inspiring educational moments, warming and uplifting social events and gatherings. You will experience all these if you join us, regularly, throughout the year.

Our Year of Years Celebration includes a Fundraising Campaign. Yes, we need each and every congregant to give to his or her best ability to keep the flame alive. But as important, our Year of Years Celebration needs your active participation. Please join us. Please email, write, call, or visit to suggest other ways that this Year of Years can be truly memorable.

All the best to everyone,
Bequests and Planned Giving

Please consider including Shearith Israel in your estate planning. To learn how, or for more information, please speak with our executive director, Barbara Reiss.

SPECIAL EVENTS

REMEMBERING BAGHDAD—Between the Tigris and the Hudson: The Iraqi Jewish Community and Shearith Israel

Featuring presentations by Carole Basri, along with members David Dangoor, David Lavipour, and Ezra Zilka

Sunday Evening, December 16

Learn about the fascinating and tragic history of Babylonian Jewry from people who lived it. The ancient and respected Jewish community of Iraq came to an abrupt end in the 20th century. Come to Shearith Israel for an unforgettable evening to hear about Jewish life in Baghdad—from the cultured, progressive, and cosmopolitan city to the tragedy of the Farhud, from the unprecedented IDF Airlift operation, Ezra and Nehemiah, to the horrible Baghdad hangings of 1969. Hear firsthand accounts of life in Baghdad from Jews who lived through it. For more information, contact Z. Edinger at zedinger@shearithisrael.org.

This program is one of our many Year of Years, 365th Anniversary celebration events, which showcase the extraordinary diversity of our congregation, throughout its history until today.

JEWISH ANTIQUE ROADSHOW

Presented by the Sisterhood and the Shearith Israel League

Sunday January 13, 2019
1:00 pm – 5:00 pm

Bring your own Judaica to the synagogue for a first of its kind, fun-filled and informative version of our own Antique Road Show. Professional appraisers will be on hand to evaluate your treasures. Show your Judaica items, share the stories behind them with friends and congregants, and perhaps learn a thing or two about them that you didn’t know. More details to follow.

SHABBAT SHIRA SING-ALONG LUNCHEON

Shabbat, January 19, 2019
Have you ever wished you were more familiar with Shearith Israel’s unique liturgy and melodies? Do you ever have the urge to sing along with the Shearith Israel choir (or belt it out at your own home)? At this special Shabbat luncheon, join the uplifting voices of our clergy — Hazan Rabbi Ira Rohde, Associate Hazan Rev. Philip L. Sherman, and Shamash, Z. Edinger — in discussing, learning, and singing classic Shearith Israel tunes. All ages welcome. Stay tuned for registration and sponsorship details.

PRE-HANUKKAH LECTURE

Date TBD

Rabbi Soloveichik will deliver a major address illuminating the themes of Hanukkah.

NEW MEMBERS HANUKKAH GATHERING

Hosted by Rabbi and Layaliza Soloveichik

Wednesday, December 5
By Invitation

Our community, especially our synagogue leadership, is very eager to get to know each and every new member and to make them feel at home at Shearith Israel. Our Hanukkah gathering at the Soloveichik home has become a wonderful and much anticipated tradition where new members can mingle with each other and our leadership. Guests enjoy an array of traditional and modern takes on latkes and other treats, hear words of Torah by our rabbi and by his wife, Layaliza, and socialize in a warm and relaxed atmosphere.
Year of Years Update

On October 6, Shabbat Bereshit, we held a luncheon in honor of our Hatanim, Zachariah Edinger and Marc Wiznia. The luncheon was very well attended, and a good time was had by all. The delicious meal was catered by Chef’s Table. Rabbi Soloveichik served as Master of Ceremonies and the hatanim were introduced by our Parnas, Mr. Lou Solomon. We heard words of Torah from Malka Edinger and Rivka Shoulson and (not so) short talks by both of the Hatanim.

During their speeches, the Hatanim both emphasized their commitment, as hatanim during this special 365th anniversary Year of Years, to helping support opportunities for lay participation and involvement at Shearith Israel. Zachariah encouraged congregational involvement at all levels, whether by joining one of our existing organizations, such as the League (for social activities), the Hebra (Burial Society), Caring Connection (hesed group), or the Sisterhood (for a wide range of social and philanthropic activities) or by helping form (or revive) a committee such as a Kiddush or Welcoming committee, or any other area of congregational need or enhancement. Marc emphasized the opportunities for members with younger families to contribute to the increased vibrancy and vitality of Shearith Israel by planning activities, events, and programs that are compelling to them, their children, and their friends.

There are many opportunities to get involved and we want to hear from you. Volunteering your time or talents for congregational activities or organizations helps build bonds of friendship and provide enriching and fulfilling activities for the entire community and there is no better time than during this special Year of Years to deepen your commitment to this incredible 365-year young institution.

For more information, please contact Zachary Edinger at zedinger@shearithisrael.org.

We have already begun celebrating our special 365th anniversary Year of Years at our major Passover and the American Imagination symposium last spring and our recent Shabbat Bereshit luncheon.

We also released Year of Years editions of our publications, Guide for the Perplexed: A Newcomer’s Primer to Congregation Shearith Israel and Friday Night Services: A Guide to Congregation Shearith Israel’s Unique Customs.

Numerous other programs and activities are also in the works, including a major historical lecture series by Rabbi Soloveichik, and an upcoming event Remembering Baghdad—Between the Tigris and the Hudson: The Iraqi Jewish Community and Shearith Israel, which is conceived as the first of several events that showcase Shearith Israel’s unique diversity and history.
If you are a member of Shearith Israel or have attended services even just once, you can appreciate the specialness of our traditions. You may have thought it was unique — to be found nowhere else.

Happily, the good news is that we are not alone! In fact, throughout the world there exist several dozen Jewish communities that share in the same special history and traditions — if perhaps in their own local style and flavor.

In August, Shearith Israel had the unusual opportunity to bring together members of eight sister communities — perhaps the first-ever such gathering — for an engaging panel discussion as well as a little singing. Over the course of the evening, panelists had a chance to share with the audience (some 60 strong) a little bit about their communities, how they came into being, traditions they have kept, and also what the communities are like today — for happily, the Western Sephardi communities are not just historical memories but are living, breathing, active places engaged in the present and looking to the future.

The evening’s panelists included:
- Rene Samson, former Hazzan of the Enoega in Amsterdam, who grew up there;
- Anna Ruth Henriques, who grew up at the United Congregation of Israelites in Jamaica;
- Raffaele Bedarida, son of the esteemed Hazzan of the Livorno community, who grew up there;
- Adam Jackson, who grew up at the Lauderdale Road Synagogue in London, and is now an active member of Shearith Israel;
- David Shahmoon, who grew up at the Spanish & Portuguese Synagogue in Montreal and is now a member of Shearith Israel in New York;
- Zachariah Edinger, our learned and devoted Shamash, who grew up at Shearith Israel;
- Jacob Oslick, who grew up at a satellite service of Mikveh Israel in Philadelphia, was then an active member at Shearith Israel before venturing to New Jersey and to Mikveh Israel as a board member;
- Vania Carvalho from Recife, Brazil, home to a resurfacing Jewish community, from where Shearith Israel’s founders once lived.

The panelists all expressed hope for renewing and strengthening ties among our sister S&P communities and holding future gatherings.

The evening fittingly ended with a spirited singing of Bendigamos, a melody shared and loved by all of the communities. You can hear it online at: https://youtu.be/Udxv0k5leOE

If you wish to learn more about these and other sister S&P communities, their traditions, and melodies, you may find the sites below of help:

The Book of Beliefs and Opinions (completed 933 CE) was the first systematic Jewish literature at Hunter College and does University of Leiden. After subsequently Rabbi Sjimon den Hollander was born in the Netherlands. He received his Master's degree in Arabic and Islamology from the University in the Elias Room at our “Open Bet Midrash.” Learn your way: join a habruta, hear a short debar torah, or simply pick a sefer off the shelf. Take advantage of this unique opportunity, and don’t hesitate to contact Z. Edinger at zedinger@shearithisrael.org with any questions. Participants are welcome to stay for evening services and help strengthen our minyan.

TUESDAY MORNING MINYAN BREAKFAST AND SHIUR
Tuesdays | Following Morning Services
The local members of our morning minyan know the pleasure of camaraderie and learning that is especially enjoyed every Tuesday morning. All worshippers are welcome to enjoy breakfast and a short shiur by a member of our clergy.

FEASTS AND FASTS: THE FESTIVALS IN JEWISH THOUGHT
A Class for Women
Tuesdays | 9:00 am
Rabbi Meir Soloveichik
Women meet on Tuesday mornings to examine anew the rituals of the Jewish holiday or fast that is approaching, challenge our assumptions, and emerge with a deeper understanding of the rituals that we have been performing our entire lives. Breakfast is served. Sponsorship opportunities are available. To find out more, go to shearithisrael.org/sponsoraclass.

FRIDAY NIGHT LIGHTS: THE MAKING AND MEANING OF SHABBAT
Fridays | Following Evening Services
Rabbi Meir Soloveichik
During the chillier months, when Shabbat starts early and the evenings loom long, congregants are invited to stay around for a bit after Friday evening services for an inspiring shiur delivered by Rabbi Soloveichik. There is no better way to transition from the workweek to the aura of Shabbat than experiencing our magnificent Friday night service followed by Friday Night Lights.

The 2018-2019 season is sponsored by the Julis family. To sponsor an individual session, go to shearithisrael.org/sponsoraclass.

THE MISUNDERSTOOD MASTERPIECE: A NEW APPROACH TO PIRKEI ABOT
Shabbat Afternoon, Year-Round
One Hour Before Mincha
Rabbi Meir Soloveichik
 Pirkei Abot is often understood as a mere series of unrelated ethical adages. In fact, each brief and frequently cited maxim in Pirkei Abot actually hints at the extraordinary, and unique, life story and worldview of its rabbinic source. What’s more, the chapters of Abot are joined in a structure that tells the story of the transmission of the Oral Law. We will see how studying the history of the rabbinic figures cited lends an entirely new understanding to these statements, and how Abot represents the diverse response of the rabbis to an age of crisis and transition that was, in many ways, not unlike our own. Sponsorship opportunities are available. To find out more, go to shearithisrael.org/sponsoraclass.
HANUKKAH FEST
Sunday, December 9 | 10:30 am

Does any other synagogue in New York serve waffles on Hanukkah? We do and you can find out why. Shearith Israel Youth and PTTS celebrate this year on the 7th day of Hanukkah with a festive celebration filled with homemade waffles, music, and Hanukkah fun!

PARENT-CHILD LEARNING
For Elementary School Age Children and Their Parents or Grandparents

On the following three Saturday Nights:
December 15 at 6:30 pm
January 12 at 6:45 pm
February 9 at 7:00 pm

The first session will be led by Rabbi Meir Soloveichik

This new educational initiative gives parents (or grandparents) the opportunity to study Torah with their children together with Shearith Israel’s clergy. After the conclusion of Shabbat, start the week off with inspiring and enriching Torah study and an excellent opportunity to bond with your child. The program is intended for children in elementary school. Pizza and prizes help make this a fun-filled evening of inter-generational learning.

For more information, contact Z. Edinger at zedinger@shearithisrael.org. If you’re interested in sponsoring a session or the entire program, please contact Barbara Reiss at breiss@shearithisrael.org.

JUNIOR BOOK GROUP
For ages 11 – 13
Select Shabbat Afternoons
Dates To Be Announced
In Private Homes

Last year, the Sisterhood introduced Junior Book Group as a Shabbat afternoon activity where kids can read books and talk about them with their peers in the comfort of a private home near the Synagogue. After the success of the initial meeting, Junior Book Group will be continuing with three sessions. Stay tuned for details, and if you have any questions or book recommendations, feel free to submit them at shearithisrael.org/book-group.

PURIM CELEBRATION
Wednesday, March 20
Children’s Programming meets at 7:00 pm

The reading of Megillat Esther begins promptly at 7:15 pm in the Large Synagogue. Children are invited to the Elias Room for their own special Purim “infotainment” program. Nat Bernstein, our energetic Youth Group Leader and Programming Coordinator, has a fun activity in the works, and Liz Rios will be on hand to supervise the younger ones (children under the age of 5 must be accompanied by a parent or caregiver).

Parents are encouraged to arrive at 7:00 pm, in order to help their children settle in and then make their way to the Large Synagogue in time for Megilah.

MITZVOT WORKSHOP WITH ZACHARY EDINGER
For All PTTS students and CSI Elementary School Age Children

December 23 | March 3 | April 14

On select Sundays, our Shamash, Zachary Edinger, leads our PTTS students and CSI youth in an interactive and educational tefillah class. Students will learn to sing the melodies of selected prayers from the Shabbat and holiday services as well as learn about the parts of the Torah service, and get trained in the hands-on parts of the service. PTTS students are expected to attend and CSI youth are heartily welcome and are asked to register in advance so we know how many of you to expect.

For full schedule of workshop dates, and for non-PTTS registration, visit shearithisrael.org/mitzvot-workshop.

BRUNCH AND LEARNS WITH RABBI SOLOVEICHIK
For Students and Their Parents

CSI members with children are heartily welcome, by registration

Sundays, 10:30 am – 12:00 pm
December 2 | February 3 | March 10

Students of PTTS and their parents enjoy a special time with the rabbi. On several Sundays over the course of the year students and their parents start the day together with morning services after which they will proceed to a topical “Brunch and Learn” with Rabbi Soloveichik.

Ingredients:

- 4 eggs
- 1 cup shortening (margarine)
- 1 cup sugar
- 4 cups flour
- 1/2 tsp or less salt
- 2 tsp baking powder
- 2 tsp. vanilla (or more)

Your favorite fillings, such as prune butter, mohn (poppy seeds), strawberry or apricot jam, chocolate chips, etc.

Instructions

1. Mix all ingredients except for the filling. Refrigerate the dough at least 2 hours.
2. Roll out dough. Using a cookie cutter or a glass, cut out rounds.
3. Place around a teaspoon of your favorite filling in the center of each round.
4. Fold rounds into a triangle shape.
5. Preheat oven to 350 degrees and bake 10 minutes until just firm.
6. Sprinkle powdered sugar on top.
7. Store in the refrigerator.

Note To Parents

For everyone’s safety, children should be either in a youth program or in the Sanctuary accompanied by a parent. Children should not be anywhere in the synagogue unattended. We appreciate your understanding.

If you would like to submit a recipe for a future bulletin, or a review of a kosher cookbook or restaurant, either in NYC or around the world, send it to Tikva Ostrega at tikvaostrega@gmail.com. Please include a short, descriptive back-story letting us know why it is special to you.
SISTERHOOD MISHLOAH MANOT PROJECT
Do you want to send Mishloah Manot notifications to your friends and fellow congregants for Purim? Take advantage of a wonderful opportunity to send special Purim greetings and to reach out to our Shearith Israel community and beyond.

This project supports the Sisterhood’s many important activities in our synagogue. Please stay tuned for more information about how to participate.

WOMEN’S MEGILLAH READING
Thursday, March 21 | 8:00 am
Congregants and guests are welcome to join the main service for megilla reading. Women are encouraged to join our unique women's reading, now in its 30th year. Novices, no need to feel intimidated; we are happy to train you to read a part, large or small.

To sign up for this year's reading, please contact Mrs. Lisa Rohde at lirohde-csi@yahoo.com.

Thank you to last year's readers: Vicki Bengualid, Beth Goldman, Annette Gourgey, Ruthie Israeli, Janet Kirchheimer, Marjorie Lehman, Julia Levi, Lilliane Marks, Liz Ninyo, Lisa Rohde, Lina Sion, Lia Solomon, Layaliza Soloveichik, and Julie Walpert.

WOMEN’S SHABBAT SERVICES
On select Shabbat Mornings
By and for women, these services are an opportunity for women to lead prayer, read from the Torah and perform the rituals associated with the day’s services. We welcome the opportunity to celebrate momentous occasions—such as a girl becoming a Bat Mitzvah or a bride before her wedding—in the context of our service. To participate and for more information, contact Mrs. Lisa Rohde at lirohde-csi@yahoo.com. For dates of meetings, sign up for our email list on our website.

YOETZET HALAKHA
Shearith Israel is a co-sponsor of the Manhattan Yoetzet Halakha Initiative. If you have any questions regarding Taharat Hamishpaha (Family Purity) or the laws of Niddah, please contact our Yoetzet Halakha, Shiffy Friedman, in confidence at nycyoetzet@gmail.com.

Shiffy Friedman has been serving as a Yoetzet Halakha in Manhattan since 2017. She graduated from Nishmat’s Miriam Glaubbach Center’s U.S. Yoatzot Halakha Fellows Program in 2015. She has been counseling women in the area of women’s health and halakha, both through her role as Yoetzet Halakha in Westchester County and through teaching brides and couples before marriage. Shiffy has taught at SAR Academy and currently teaches at Ma’ayanot Yeshiva High School. She received her B.A. in Judaic Studies from Stern College and a dual M.A. in Education and Jewish Studies from New York University. Prior to that, she spent a year studying in Israel at the Stella K. Abraham Beit Midrash for Women in Migdal Oz. She and her husband, Rabbi Noam Friedman, live with their two children, Avital and Adir, in Morningside Heights, where they serve as the OU-JLIC couple at Columbia/Barnard Hillel.

ONE-ON-ONE TOUR OF THE UWS MIKVAH
If you are interested in learning more about Taharat Hamishpaha, the laws of family purity, please contact Layaliza Soloveichik at layaliza@gmail.com for a private tour of the facilities at the local UWS Mikvah. To maximize confidentiality, these one-on-one tours will take place at times when the Mikvah is closed to the public. Tours of other local mikvaot are also possible. Women only.

CARING CONNECTION
Caring Connection, our Congregation’s hased network, trains community members as sensitive volunteers, enabling them to proactively help others through times of need, one of Judaism’s greatest mitzvot. This vital assistance greatly aids the individual, and also strengthens and unifies our community, enhancing our sense of responsibility for one another. This group of volunteers responds to a variety of situations, both in times of difficulty, such as illness or mourning, and times of joy, such as the exciting and often overwhelming challenges accompanying the arrival of a new baby.

Our volunteers coordinate meals to those in need; arrange visits and phone calls to the elderly, homebound, and recuperating; and even provide transport or wheelchair assistance to those who wish to attend synagogue services or events.

If you know someone who might need assistance in any form, or would like to get involved as a volunteer yourself, please email caringconnection@shearithisrael.org.

If Caring Connection lacks the expertise or resources to provide appropriate assistance, they do their best to direct people to other congregational and communal organizations.

MEALS FOR MOURNERS AND NEW PARENTS
Shearith Israel’s Caring Connection provides meals for members and their families after the birth of a child, and the Hebra Hased Va’Amet provides mourners and their family with their shiva meals.

If you would like to sponsor a meal, we offer several options and easy ways for you to do so. Simply go to shearithisrael.org/hased-meals and select the meal type you would like to sponsor. The family will be notified of your generous gesture. Please be assured that our Caring Connection and Hebra volunteers are in touch with the affected families and will ensure that their specific needs (quantities, dietary restrictions, etc.) will be considered. Any surplus sponsorships will be used to ensure that all of our members are provided meals in their times of need.

If you would prefer to cook and deliver your own home-cooked meals, or place food orders on your own rather than participate in Caring Connection’s fund, please contact Layaliza Soloweichik at layaliza@gmail.com beforehand. Layaliza is our congregation’s volunteer coordinator for meals for new parents, and she makes every effort to ensure that the family’s preferences and requests are accommodated and that duplication of efforts are avoided.

Morning (Shahrit) Service......................... 7:15 am
The Fast of Esther commemorates the day when the Jews of Persia narrowly escaped being victims of Haman’s evil plot to exterminate them. Instead, “The Jews had light and gladness, joy and honor.”

Purim Shushan, the day following Purim, was the actual day of celebration observed in Shushan, the capital of ancient Persia, and is the day Purim is observed in Jerusalem.

The generosity of our members and friends enables us to continue to honor our past, strengthen our community and pass on our traditions for the next chapter of Jewish and American history. We have many opportunities to contribute in fulfilling our mission as a synagogue.

GENERAL DONATIONS
General donations honor our past with dignity through the preservation of our historic spaces including our main sanctuary and small synagogue, three historic cemeteries in Lower Manhattan and our active cemetery in Cyprus Hills, Queens. These donations ensure a strong future through engaging educational programs with rigorous ritual and liturgical training for youth including PTTS, our Toddler Programs, Junior Congregation, and special opportunities for girls. And perhaps most importantly, general donations uphold and celebrate our minhag and liturgical traditions through dedicated clergy members, our sublime choir, Shabbat, and holiday services.

KIDDUSH FUND
The congregational Kiddush is an opportunity for congregants and visitors to socialize and mingle after services, humbly serving an important congregational function. Sponsoring a kiddush is a beautiful way to pay tribute to a loved one, celebrate a birthday, anniversary, graduation, a personal accomplishment, or a ritual honor. It is also a great way to foster community—facilitating fellow congregants to catch up with friends, meet new members and guests, and greet synagogue leaders.

SPONSOR SCOTCH AND ARAK
In addition to our weekly Kiddush sponsors and contributors we are now also accepting sponsors for the scotch and arak that we make available each week.

RABBI’S DISCRETIONARY FUND
The Rabbi’s Discretionary Fund is a charitable arm of our congregation. These funds are designated by our rabbis for members in need and communities in crisis. This past year, our funds have assisted a number of members who have hit hard times as well as important causes such as the Houston Jewish Community recovering from flooding, the Food Bank for NYC and worthy institutions in Israel.

CLASS AND EVENT SPONSORSHIPS
Help us strengthen educational initiatives at Shearith Israel by supporting a warm and inviting atmosphere to learn, debate, and grow together as a community. Sponsor for a class, Monday Night Learning, minyan breakfast, Tuesday morning women’s class, Tuesday evening Talmud shiur or Shabbat afternoon class. Or, contribute to sponsor an event, such as academic symposiums, lectures, and discussions with Jewish scholars from around the world and maintain our synagogue as a leader in contemporary Jewish dialogue.

CARING CONNECTION
Financial contributions support efforts in proactively providing organized assistance to members of our community through times of need, one of Judaism’s greatest Mitzvot. Caring Connection raises the funds needed to defray the costs of all it does, including delivering meals to mourners and new parents. Not only does this vital assistance greatly aid the individual or family, it also strengthens and unifies our community and enhances our sense of responsibility for one another.

BEQUESTS
Please consider including Shearith Israel in your estate planning. For more information, please speak with our Executive Director, Barbara Reiss.

VOLUNTEER YOUR TIME AND TALENT
Shearith Israel belongs to its devoted members and our vitality depends on our participation and involvement. Our most successful programs and activities are those that are organized with the help of capable volunteers who bring creativity, good cheer and friends. We have a variety of committees and societies, such as our Sisterhood and Young Leadership for you to contribute ideas and energy. We also benefit from the talents and expertise of lay leaders who can help us in important projects such as historic cemetery restoration, archival upgrades, real estate projects and facilities needs, and so much more. And of course, at our core, we are a caring community and that means that providing emotional and logistical support to members in times of need cannot depend on our clergy alone but requires the care and involvement of many whether through our Caring Connection hesed committee or our Hebra. Getting involved is how you make it happen and how you forge meaningful connections at your synagogue.

Giving is easy and feels good too. Visit shearithisrael.org/giving.

Thank you for enabling the continuation and strengthening of our congregation’s mission and legacy.
