COMING UP

Sunday Matinee

Sponsored by the Sisterhood

NEXT SESSION: "Near Normal Man"

This presentation will be followed by Q&A with the filmmaker, Charlene Stern

Sunday, April 18 | 2:00 pm | On Zoom

The first-hand account of Ben Stern, a Polish Jew who survives two ghettos, nine concentration camps, and two death marches. The Nazis identify him as one of the dangerous Jews of the Warsaw Ghetto. He emerges alive, only to face the Nazis again - 30 years later, this time in Skokie, Illinois. Ben decides he will not let them march in his adopted hometown and confronts his rabbi, who tells the survivors to "stay home, close the shades and let them pass." What did he do then, and is still doing today, at 99 years of age?

Charlene Stern, a successful businesswoman and now an award-winning documentary filmmaker, is committed to sharing her remarkable father's story with the world, now in more than 13 countries and growing.

Coming up next in this series:

Sunday, May 23 | 2:00 pm:

"The Name My Mother Gave Me"
